

One Book/One College
Grimm's Fairy Tales by the Brothers Grimm
March 21-22, 24-25 and 30, 1:00 - 2:00 pm
Student Lounge, Vanderlyn Hall

Monday, March 21:

Presenter:

~ Joann K. Dejudicibus, SUNY at New Paltz, Composition Program Assistant and Instructor: "Dumb Bunnies and Gold Pieces: Kept Women in Anne Sexton's Transformations."

Introduction: Tom Impola, Assistant Professor of English

Tuesday, March 22:

Presenters:

~ Steve Schimrich, Professor of Earth Science and Geology: "The Mythology of Dwarves and Mining."

~ Rob LaRocque, English Department: "The Assertion and Subversion of Power in Grimm's Fairy Tales"

Moderator: John Ganio, Dean of Academic Affairs

(Wednesday, Mar. 23 - Rescheduled due to weather. See Wednesday, Mar. 30, below.)

Thursday, March 24:

Presenters:

~ Marti Robinson, Professor of English: "True Grimm: A Discussion of Louise Murphy's novel The True Story of Hansel and Gretel: A Novel of War and Survival."

~ Richard Cattabiani, Director of International Programs: "Three Characteristics of the Fairy Tale: Why do Tellers Tell?"

Moderator: Doug Furman, Assistant Professor of Mathematics

Friday, March 25:

Presenters:

~ Robert Pucci, Associate Professor of Communication: "Inside the Triangle of Dream, Nightmare, and Reality: The Fairy Tale Atmosphere in Film."

~ Tommy Damicantonio, Assistant Professor of Criminal Justice: "A Grimm Case of Wolficide: This Time its Personal Injury."

Moderator: John Ganio, Dean of Academic Affairs

Rescheduled from March 23:

Wednesday, March 30:

Presenters:

~ Dina Pearlman, Art Department: "Red Caps, Hoods and Capes: A Visual History of Childhood Stories from The Brothers Grimm to Hollywood."

~ Frank Boyer, Art Department: "Visual Romanticism and the Brothers Grimm."

Moderator: Tom Impola, Assistant Professor of English