Juror

JUROR: Portia Munson is a painter, photographer, and installation artist known for "Pink Projects," made up of thousands of pink plastic objects, which explores "the marketing of femininity". Munson is also known for her large flower prints, scanned configurations of flowers collected from her garden. The fresh flowers natural color and circular form inspire the images, creating mandalas that in Eastern religions represent the universe.

A resident of Greene County, Munson earned a bachelor of fine arts degree from Cooper Union in New York City and a master of fine arts from Rutgers University in New Jersey. Her work has been exhibited throughout the United States, Canada and Europe, and she has been awarded numerous fellowships and residencies. She is represented by PPOW in Chelsea, NYC.

To Enter

Submit up to 5 JPEG (appx. 5x7 at 300 ppi) images on a CD with completed entry form. Include SASE if you would like your submission materials returned. Please number each image file to correspond with entry form. Mail to Suzy Jeffers, SUNY Ulster, PO Box 557, Stone Ridge, NY 12484.
